

---

Name: Andy Rosson

Title: Electrical Project Engineer

Profile

Andy will be responsible for the strategic direction and leadership of the project. He will create a close working relationship with you and ensure that your requirements and objectives are delivered by all members of the site based team. His key skills include a relationship-driven approach and active Client engagement and communication.

Andy has strong leadership and team management skills, achieving excellent results through constant attention to detail, delivering both industrial and commercial projects to the highest standards.

Experience

Andy has over 14 years' construction experience the last 6 years have been dedicated to performing a project engineer's role on the following projects:

- IPO Newport on going redevelopment of Office areas - £850,000.
- RBS Enfield disaster recovery centre £1.2M
- House Of Fraser renovation of Beauty and Shoe department £450,000.
- Green Flag call centre £350,000.
- Exchange Station office refurbishment £491,000.

The above projects are all examples of work Andy has project engineered in the environments where business as usual has to be maintained for our valued clients,

Andy is also one of the NICEIC Qualified Supervisors for the company.

Qualifications

- 2330 Electrical Level 2 Certificate in Electrotechnical Technology Installation.
- 2330 Electrical Level 3 Certificate in Electrotechnical Technology Installation.
- Level 3 NVQ in Electrotechnical Services-Electrical Installation.
- Level 3 Award in the Requirements Electrical Installations BS7671.
- Construction Site Supervisors Safety Certificate.